

CO-VISION – Mapping the Natural Heritage
Local Debate – Pinus Pinea
Presidential Estate of Castelporziano
Friday, March 13

Draft Programme

10:00 – 10:30

Opening of the day and Institutional Greetings

Francesco Rutelli
Founder and President of Videocittà

Introduction to the European project CO-VISION – Mapping the Natural Heritage
The international partnership and the value of European cooperation

Guido Pietro Airoidi
CO-VISION Project Leader

10:30 – Scientific Session

Pinus pinea between history, landscape, and contemporary threats

- Pinus pinea in the Mediterranean landscape: origin, diffusion, and current challenges with Prof. Giuseppe Scarascia Mugnozza
- Open reflections on the Presidential Estate of Castelporziano with the Estate Management

11:00 – Artistic and Creative Session

- 11:00 – 11:10: Launch of the artwork Pinus Pinea AV Talk
 - 11:10 – 11:20: Curatorial and artistic evaluation of the project
A reflection on the development of the project to date and its future perspectives with Anna Lea Antolini, Artistic Director of Videocittà
Introduction by Michele Lotti, Creative Director of Videocittà
 - 11:20 – 11:25: The pine tree in literature and cultural memory of the Italian landscape
Video message by Prof. Simone Arcagni
 - 11:25 – 11:40: The movement of trees: body, perception, and relationship with the landscape
Talk and short participatory workshop by Delfina Stella
 - 11:40 – 11:55: The soundscape of Pinus pinea
Short performative presentation of the sound design process by Vincenzo Pizzi
-

11:55 – 12:10

Students' intervention

Liceo Scientifico "Ettore Majorana" – Rome

Presentation of the work developed by students on the theme of the pine forest crisis and Pinus pinea

12:10 – 13:10

Walk within the Presidential Estate of Castelporziano to observe the pine forest context, the main ongoing threats, and current research and conservation activities

Closing of the day